SCORELESS GAME

Bristol, Tenn., July 9.—The most remarkable draw battle in the history of the Appalachian League (Class D) was fought here this afternoon between the Johnson City Soldiers and "Red" Munson's Bristol team. Neither side was able to score in fourteen innings, and the game was called on account of darkness. It was largely a pitchers' battle between Hall, formerly of the Roanoke team, in the Virginia League, who pitched for the visitors, and Helsman, formerly of the Whecling, W. Va., team of the Tri-State League, who pitched for Bristol. Hall allowed only three hits in fourteen innings, and while Heisman was touched for seven clean hits and two scratches, he so tightened in pinches that the visitors were only once able to get a man as far as third base, while Bethel, of the home team, was caught at the home plate by Hooker's remarkable peg from left outfield.
